and perhaps with some regret that it was not all put to better use.

Recent sociological studies have revealed that the separation of the male homo sapiens from the females of that species for long periods of time may have adverse effects. While the situation may be welcomed by some, being especially conducive to study, others may have their minds affected by the detachment. It also may be noted that in extreme cases where individuals have endeavored to spend an entire year within the confines of the college gates, marked changes in their physical characteristics have occurred.

ATHLETICS

But the Ref Said He Wasn't Over!

The story told in this picture reasonably sums up the entire 1963 season, because Ryan's touchdown did not count. It was a season of injuries, record high temperatures, and six defeats on the road. But it also had its high-water marks. The Pumas won two of their three home games in come-from-behind victories over arch-rivals Valparaiso and DePauw. Rich Ostrowski established a conference record with a 35-yard field goal against DePauw only to set the stage for Ron Boguski's record shattering 48-yarder fifteen minutes later.

The team doubled its passing record over 1962, but failed to score a touchdown pass. The loss of only eight seniors has eyebrows raised for 1964 but the likes of Gugliotta, Schreiber, Boguski, Isselhard, Ostrowski, and Anderson (all 3-time letter winners) will be sorely missed.

The Athletic Staff

Mr. Richard Scharf, Athletic Director; Mr. Donald Merki, Head Baseball Coach; Mr. James Holstein, Head Basketball Coach; Mr. Edward Bara, Assistant Football Coach; Mr. Edward Dwyer, Head Football Coach; Mr. James Betz, Assistant Football Coach.

Senior Ron Boguski retires triumphantly from our grid after the DePauw victory. He had just booted a 40-yard field goal in the final four seconds to beat the Tigers 9-6. Earlier his 48-yard kick tied the score and a national record.

Turners

Director Alfred Hentschel has his men take time out of their busy routine to take our formal picture.

One of the highlights of the basketball season is the half-time show put on by the Turners. Here is one of their pyramids.

Key Factors Rebounding

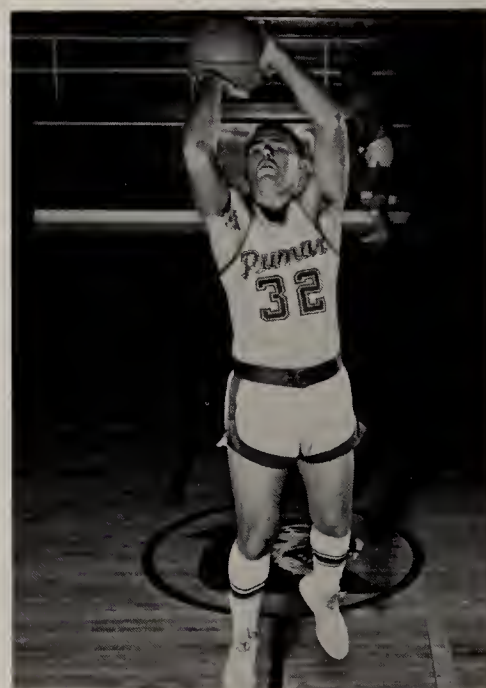

Tom Sager, 32, only senior on this year's team, helps Larry Yeagley, 30, and Bob Mokros, 22, retrieve the ball after a stray Wheaton shot.

Sophomore Mokros, 22, and Captain Paul Zosel, 20, tip one up for two points against Wheaton.

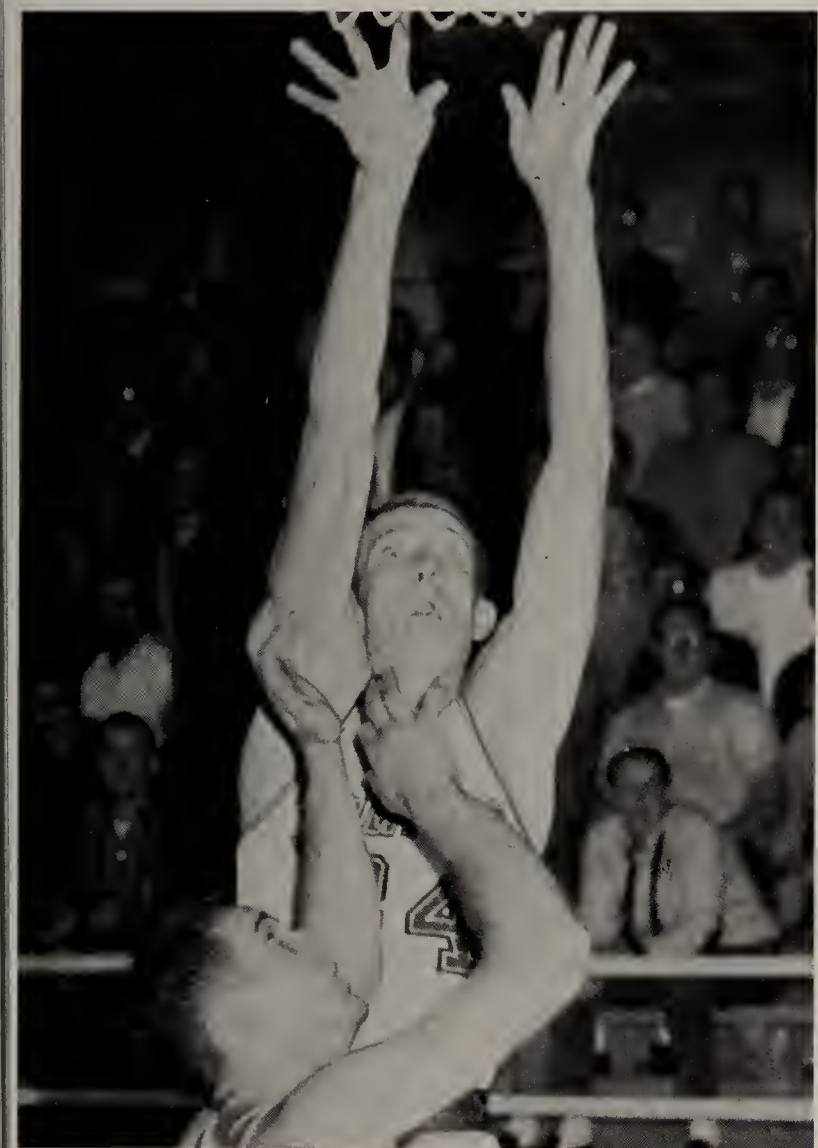

This time it's all sophs ganging up on Wabash. Yeagley, 30, Mokros, 22, and Carl Bossung, 12, combine to score.

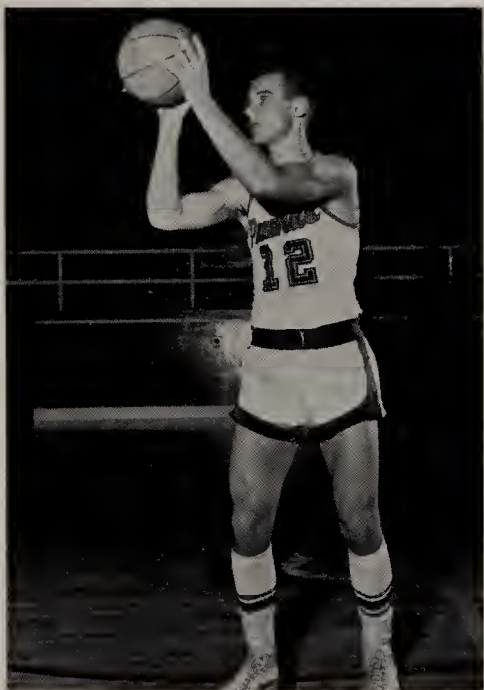

TOM SAGER, Sr.
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

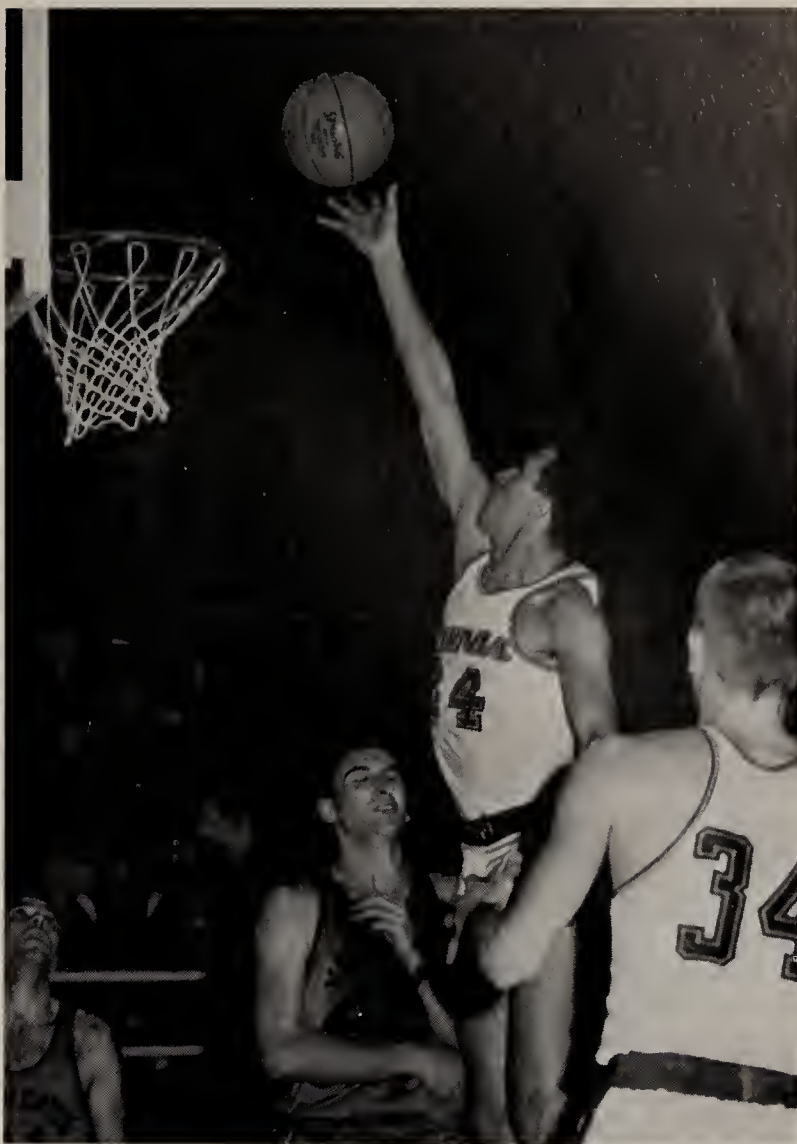

For Success Shooting

Lonnie Brunswick, 34, Most Valuable Player and scoring leader of this year's Pumas, strains to dump in two points from in close.

CARL BOSSUNG, So.
Reynolds, Indiana

Puma strongman, Al Papai, 14, goes up for an easy basket against Manchester.

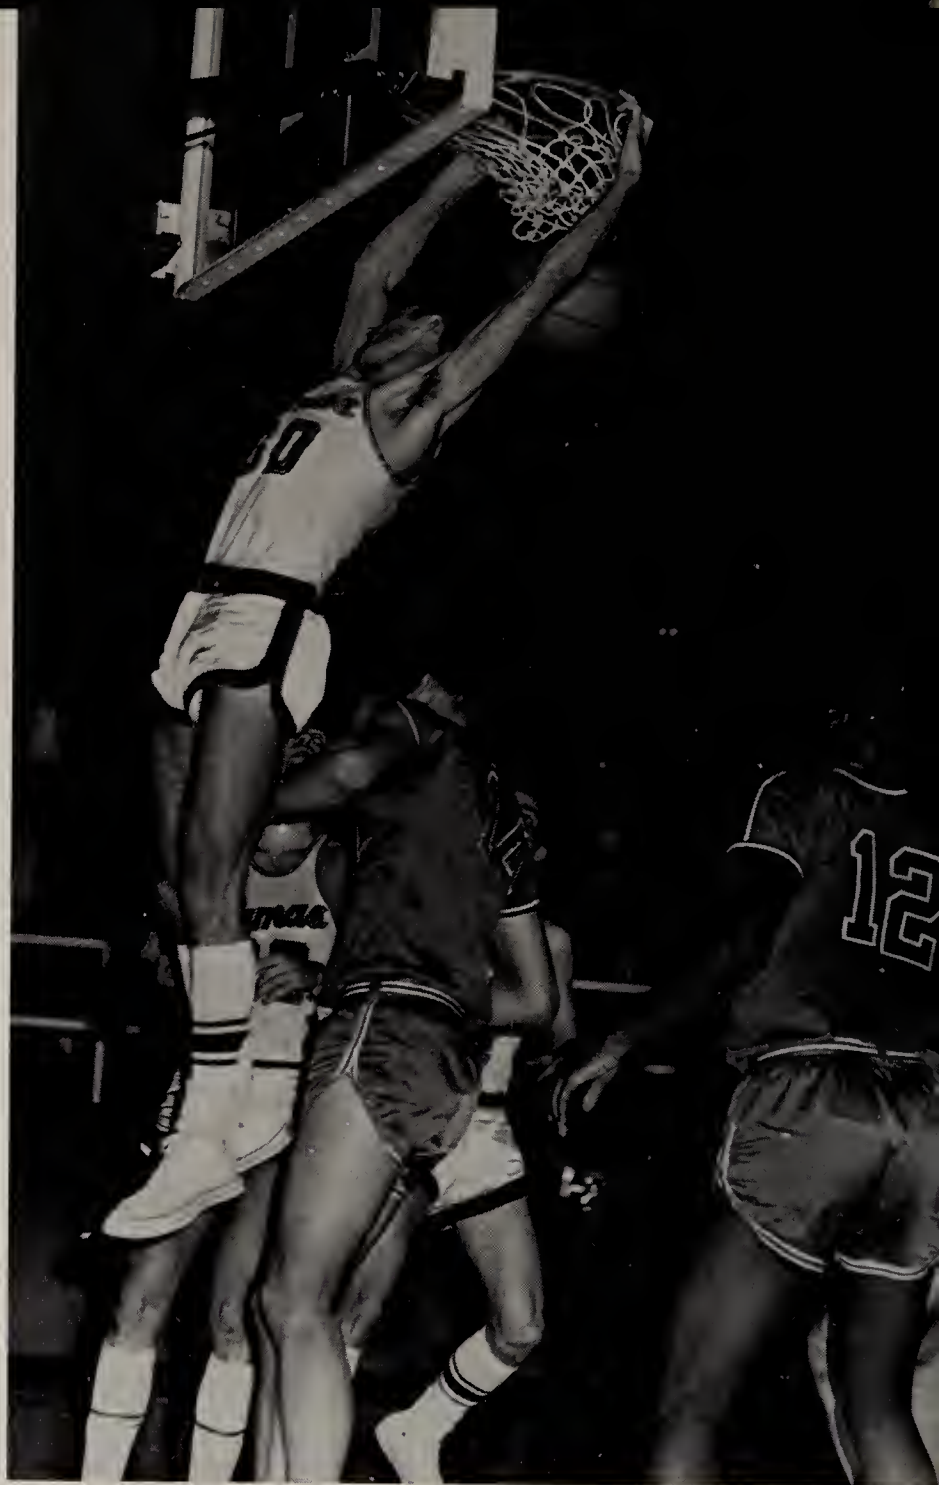

Tom Crowley, 4, a swift and smooth sophomore guard, lays one in as Wheaton's defenders watch helplessly.

A young and untried team took the St. Joe banner into battle during the 1963-1964 basketball campaign. They came out scarred and beaten fifteen times in twenty-three tries, but they came out wiser and more mature in the ways of the game.

Tom Sager, the only Senior on this year's team, did an admirable job when his chance came, but even his basketball knowledge could not get the team through some of the tight spots during the season.

This was a spirited, fighting team that showed great desire. They never let down. However, it was a season for lumps and learning.

Larry Yeagley soars high in the air to "stuff" one.

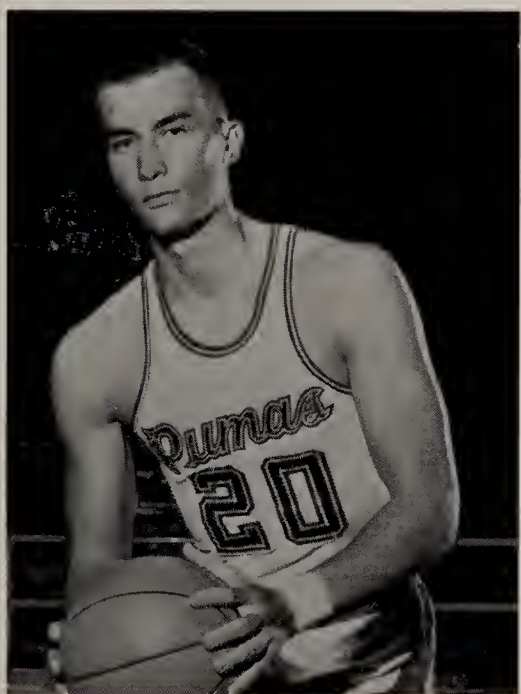

Coach Holstein gives some kind words of encouragement to his boys.

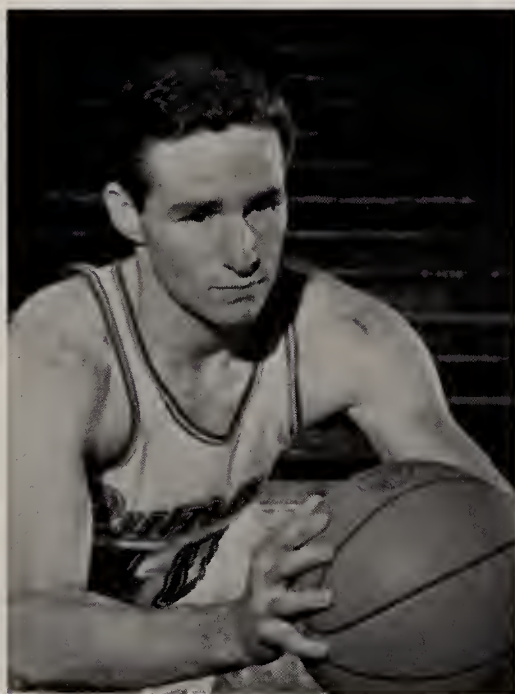

Torn Crowley, 4, and Paul Zosel, 20, followed Brunswick in the scoring department. Crowley led in assists and made the honorable mention all-ICC team, while Zosel led in rebounds. Here, Wheaton and St. Cloud St. get a taste of the results of the Crowley-Zosel combination.

Two front-liners, Lonnie Brunswick, 34, and Larry Yeagley, 30, won't believe you if you contend that basketball isn't a contact sport. The going gets rough under those boards!

K. PAUL ZOSEL, Jr.
Des Moines, Iowa

JOHN CROWLEY, Jr.
Chicago, Illinois

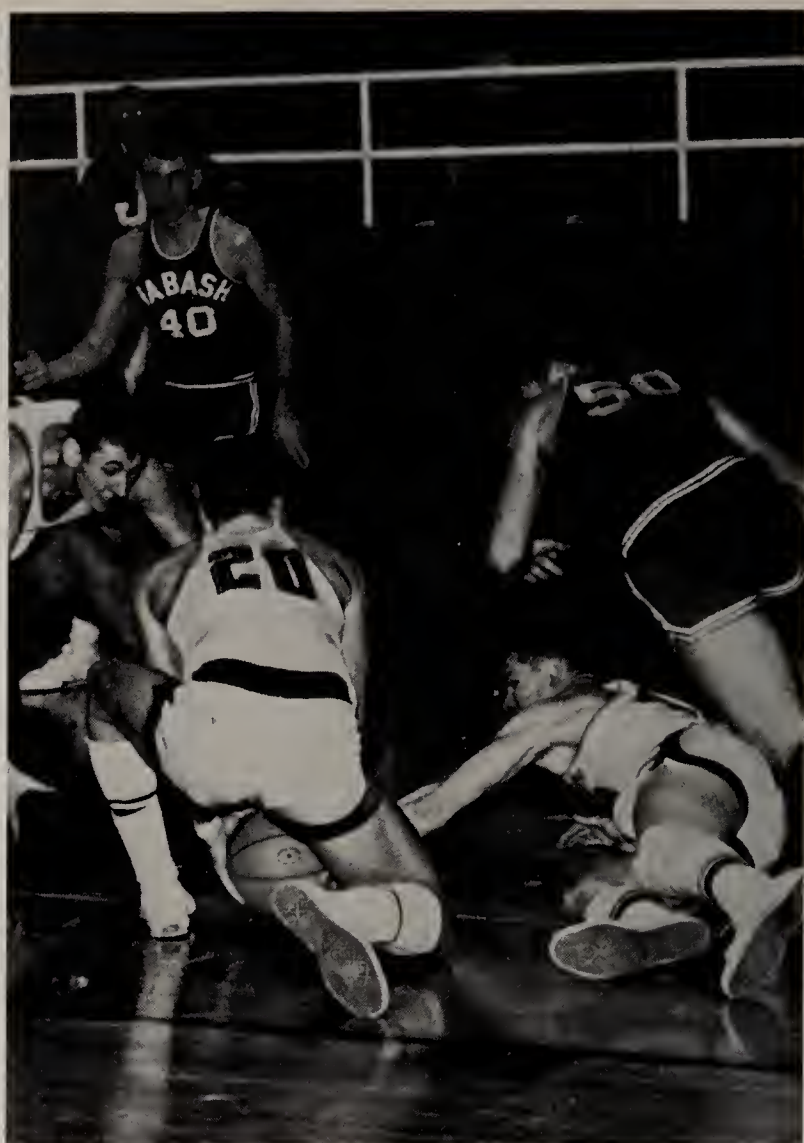

Roommates Tom Crowley, 4, and Carl Bossung, 12, team up in a scramble for the ball against Marian.

These four sophomores want that ball! Carl Bossung, 12, Terry Davisson, 42, Bob Mokros, 22, and Tom Crowley, 4, rush together and a Wabash player gets squashed.

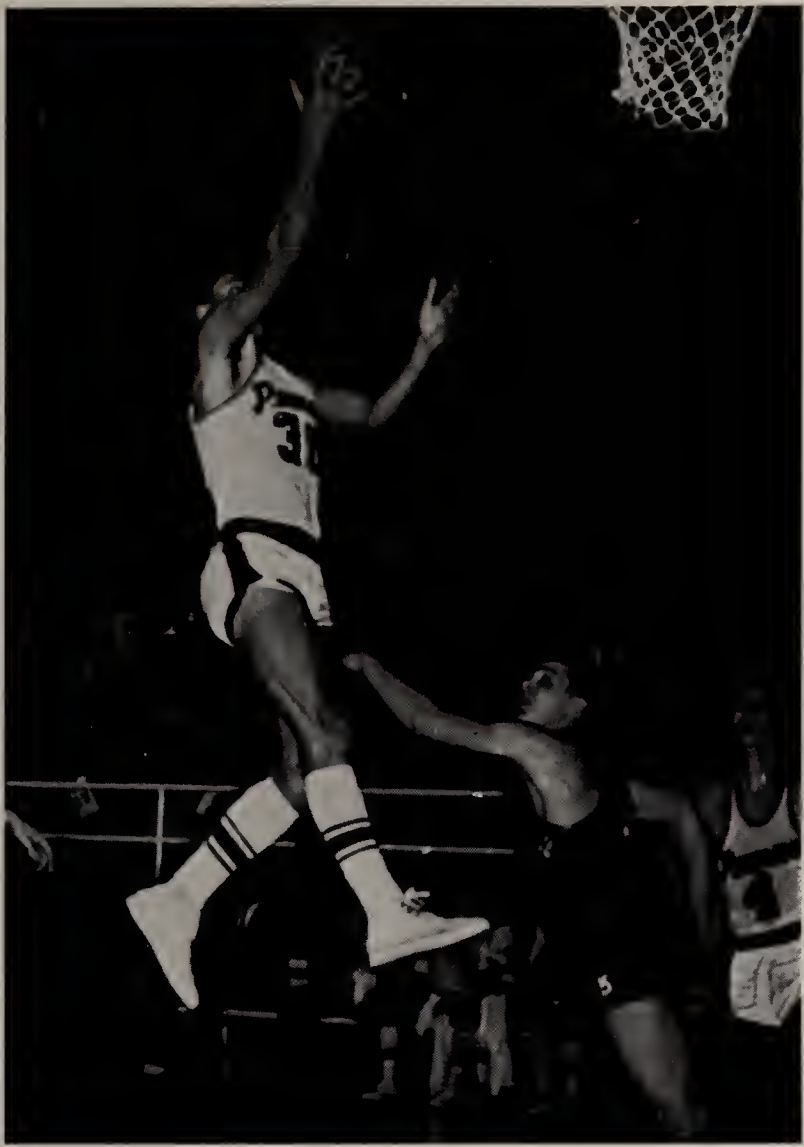

Get That Ball

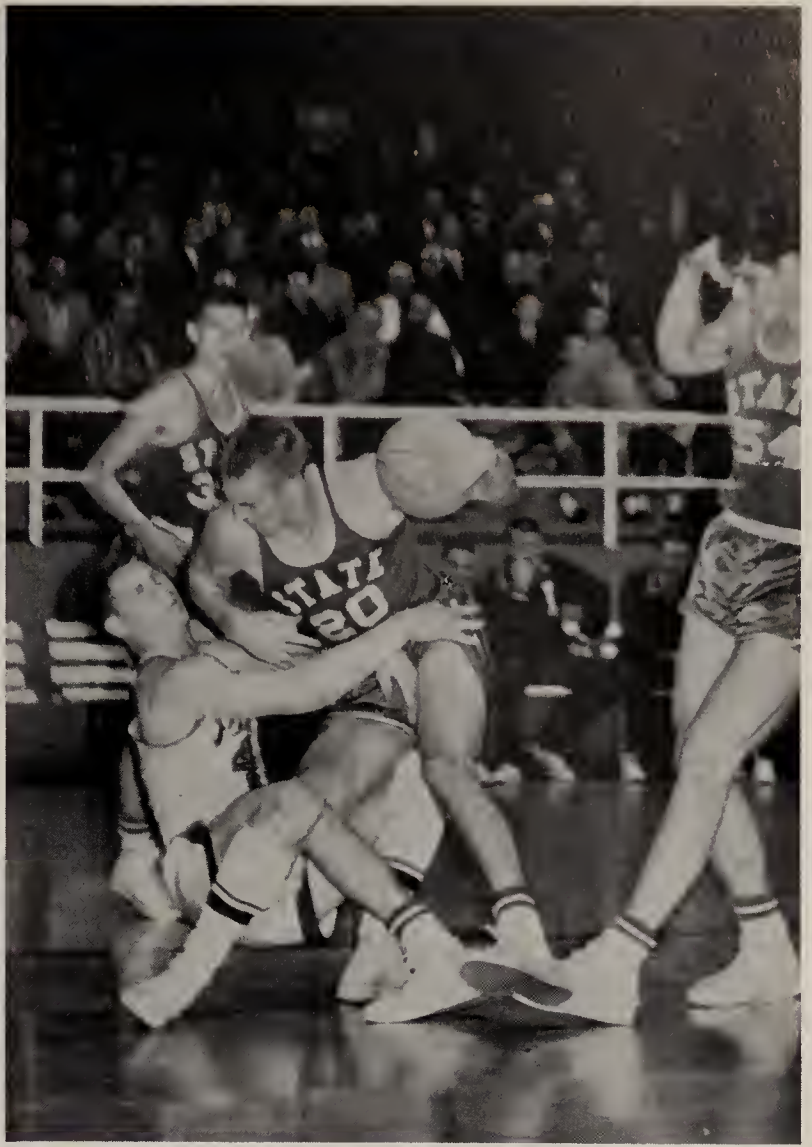

Terry Davisson, 42 (on the floor), Paul Zosel, 20, and Larry Yeagley, 30, leave Wabash players on the outside looking in.

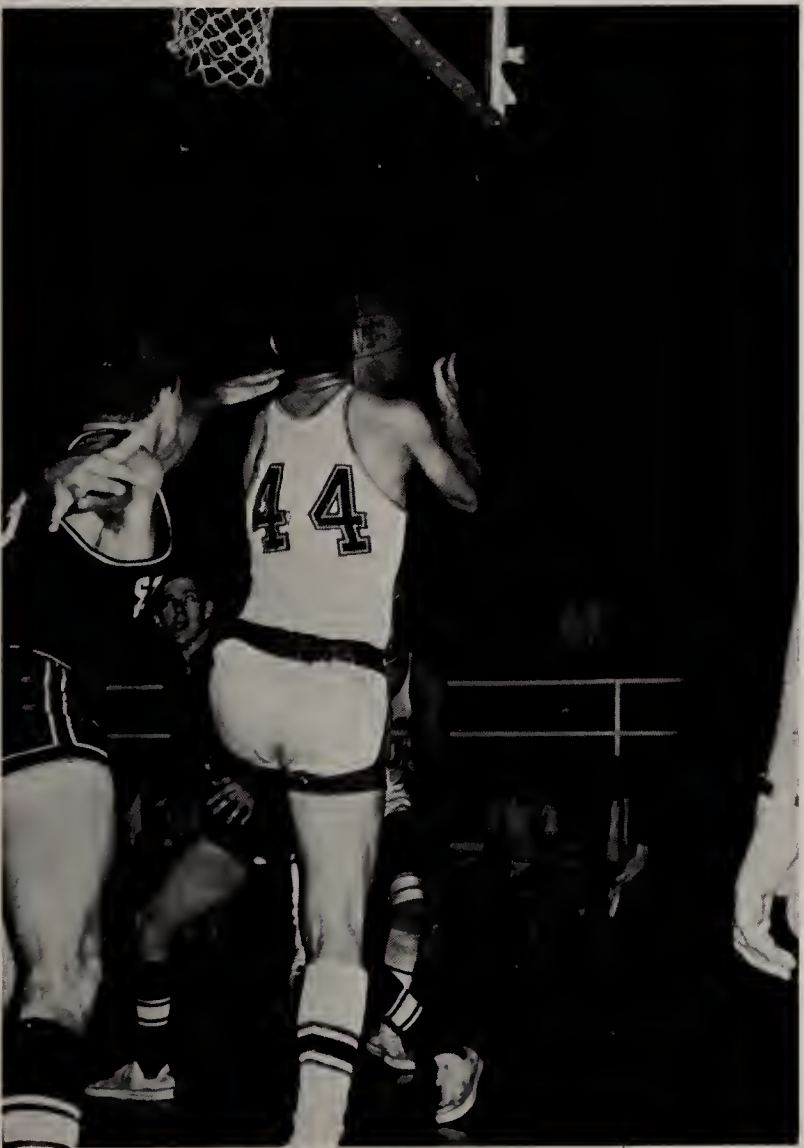

Paul Zosel, 20, and Carl Bossung, 12, assist Larry Yeagley, 30, in another scramble here and the Pumas get this one, too.

Puma jumping-jack Larry Yeagley, 30, soars for an easy basket against St. Cloud State.

Always in the thick of the action is Terry Davisson, 42. Here he is fighting with Indiana State players.

A quick shovel pass from Carl Bossung, 12, results in two points for Bob Mokros, 22, and the Pumas against Wheaton.

Hard Work pays Off

1963-1964 Puma Cubs. Standing: Bill Williams, Bill Hayes, Jim Still, Coach Don Merki, Dennis Fabre, Ed Holmes, and Len Sharbaugh.
Kneeling: Kevin Porraath, Jerry Wilder, Joe Thompson, Don Tammen, and Jim Klein.

The very popular, as well as talented, Lonnie 'Country' Brunswick was voted the Most Valuable Player award by his teammates this year. He led the team in scoring and in field goal percentage. His great desire showed in practice and in games. Hats off to this Burkettsville star!

Bowling

Senior Jim Madden gets set to pick up another mark.

Larry and Jim find it easy to smile when they are ahead.

The Saint Joseph baseball team registered its first winning season in three years, finishing with a very respectable 14-9 record. Home runs made the greatest contribution to the improvement. Junior Ken Dockus slammed six tying the record set by George Post in 1962. Dockus also belted eight doubles breaking Post's old record of seven set in the same year.

Second baseman Tom Crowley and shortstop Ken Dockus trot off the field after executing a double play to end the inning.

Sophomore Bernie Gustenhoven led the pitching staff with an Earn Run Average of 0.00 including an 11-inning, 2-hit shutout against Marian in his only start. Jim O'Loughlin and Bob Marx each won 4 games for the Pumas.

Ralph Piccirilli slams a base hit into center field.

A big swing but . . . this one got by.

You're not watching the game, Bernie.

Paul Corsaro won the batting race at .333, but Dockus led the team in runs scored, hits, RBI's, singles, doubles, home runs, and assists. Dwayne Hunn was the leader in triples and put outs, and Ken Kudla drew a record high of 21 walks.

Bill Caul watches as one of his fast balls gets tagged . . . an infrequent occurrence.

Pat Prorok, Huck Quigley, Dick Kemper, John O'Rielly and Tom Murphy reflect a variety of emotions as they watch the game.

is a wooded retreat commonly labelled—
THE GROTTO.

Saint Joseph

The brother's life is a life of dedication to God through prayer and work.

Patron of Brothers

Brother Paul Werling makes sure that the college cars are always in tip-top shape.

All four seasons witness Brother Fidelis Bauer beautifying the college landscape.

Brother James Brown is a full-time student studying for his degree in mathematics.

Brother Philip Buhrman is both a part-time student and head of the college's processing and printing office.

Brother John Kreuzhermes works on the college farm raising turkeys, chickens, and swine to keep our tables well supplied.

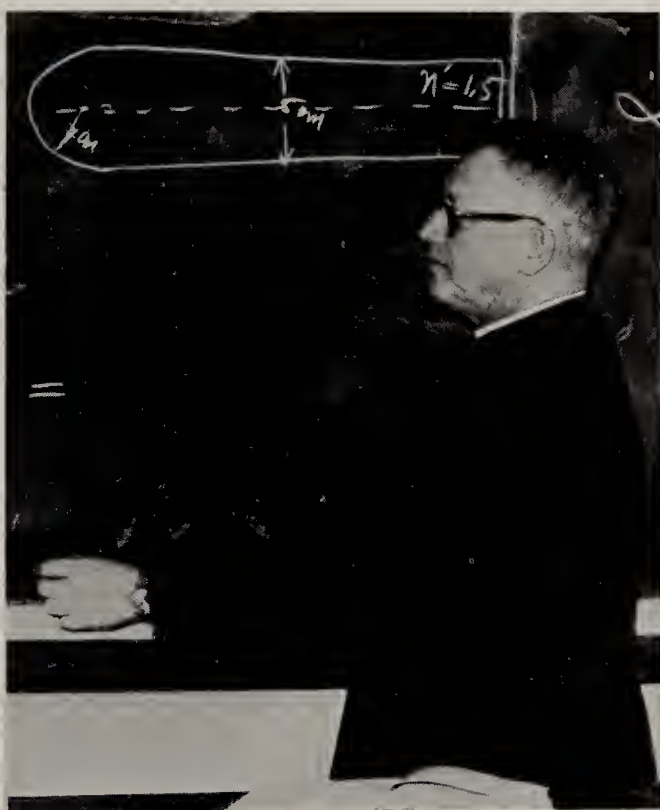

Brother Joseph Mary Herzo works as an assistant in the College Infirmary.

Brother Conrad Lemanski is daily occupied with tailoring new, and mending torn clothes of St. Joseph Community members.

Being a sophomore hall director provides some experience for Brother Gerard Von Hagel's duties as an assistant to the Dean of Men.

Brother John Marling teaches mathematics and physics, in addition to being a freshman hall director.

Shown here testing various wax samples is Brother Alphonse Staab, head of the college's janitorial maintenance.

The maintenance of the Power house is under the supervision of Brother Francis Werling. Here he is shown sharpening his tools.

Able assistant to the Dean of Men is Brother Lawrence Convery.

All type of work is Brother Henry Luke's specialty. Though he normally is occupied with the lawn, he is shown here tidying up the recreation room.

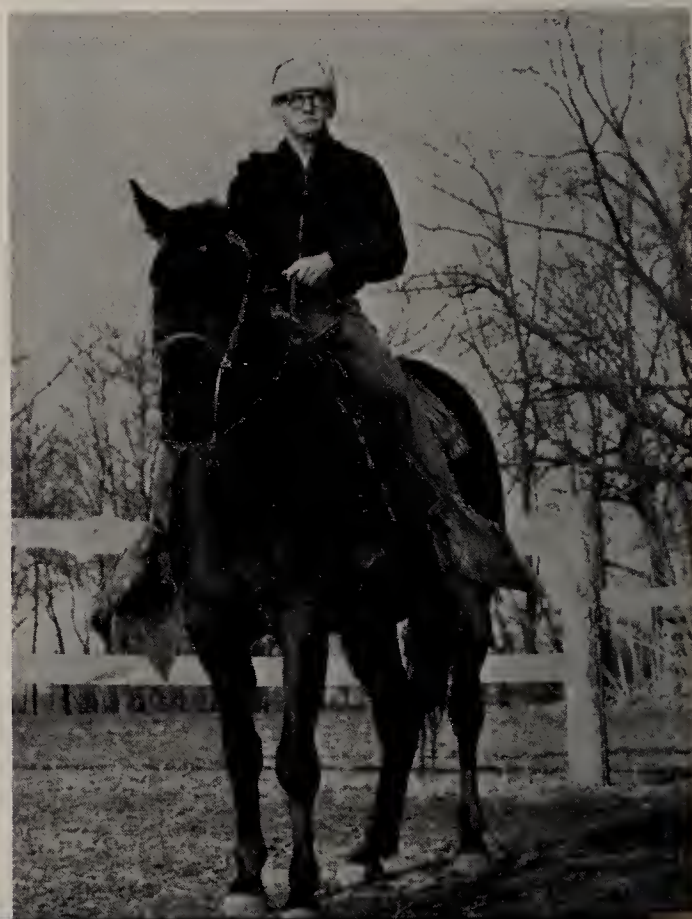

A major portion of Brother Joseph Minch's time is spent in his duties as a college electrician.

Recreation

In addition to bicycling, horseback riding, taping, painting, and other sports, the brothers can enjoy many different types of recreation such as listening to records, or TV, or relaxing after a day's work.

Dwelling in Xavier Hall at the southern tip of St. Joseph's Campus are fifty-five seminarians in their first two years of college life. As with all youth, interests are diverse and varied, but essentially the goal of these young men remains the same—the Priesthood in the Society of the Precious Blood.

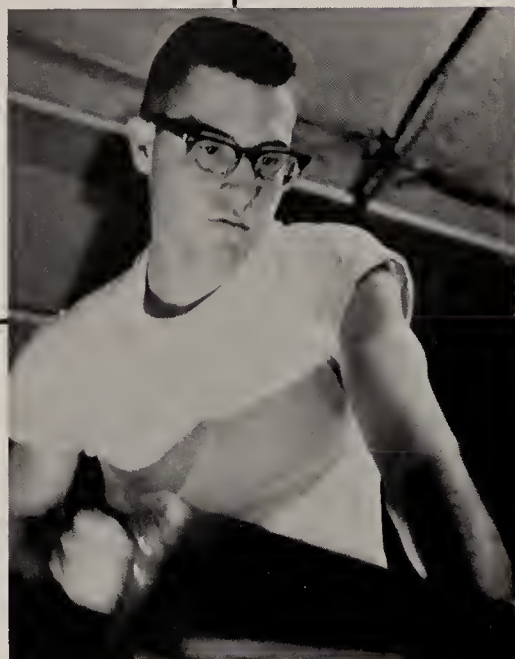

Throughout the many years of seminary curriculum, manual labor plays a distinct and important role in the formation of the future priest. Four afternoons of the week witness the seminarians preserving the general maintenance of the campus.

St. Joe's

Phil takes the gas.

Their magnetic personalities have always made them great favorites with children.

"Gee, you sure don't look like 28."

It is a well known fact that every class has a couple of fellows who, although they are always around when there is work to be done and contribute greatly to the welfare of the whole class, receive very little recognition. Felix "Phil" Grassi and Michael "Moose" Hollar are two such individuals. Besides being the two "work horses" of the Senior class, their exceptionally keen sense of humor helps to break the monotony of classes and studies.

Naturally they are always ready for some good, clean fun. Here they jovially throw Jerry Graff off the roof of Bennett hall.

Unsung Heroes

The sign of a true friend is thoughtfulness. Here Phil thoughtfully prevents Moose from scratching up his car.

Some guys just can't take finals.

"Psst, hey, Sweetheart!"

"I told you that was the wrong door."

"Two, please."

Always a lovable fellow, Joe Daleiden attempts to strike up a new friendship as Terry Levenda chaperones.

The Very Reverend Raphael H. Gross congratulates the graduates.

Father Gross presents Mr. Herman C. Wells a Doctor of Laws degree.

Lawrence J. Beuret
Valedictorian

Mrs. Lena F. Edwards receives her honorary law degree from Father Gross as Father Ballmann looks on.

Joseph Daleiden receives his bachelor's degree from the Most Reverend John J. Carberry, who presided at the commencement exercises.
